If you want to purchase books for the semester with Pell refunds you must request a book disbursement, or you will have to purchase the books with your own money. Please remember that there is only ONE book disbursement per semester. If you are taking classes in the second 8 weeks, you must purchase your books with the book disbursement at the beginning of the semester.

_____ I choose to receive a financial aid book disbursement. The amount of the book disbursement will be deducted from my Pell award. When the remaining Pell award is paid, after classes have begun, I understand Tuition and Fees will be deducted before any refund (if eligible) is disbursed.

_____ I choose not to get a financial aid book disbursement. I will purchase the books for the semester with my own money. When the Pell award is paid, after classes have begun, I understand Tuition and Fees will be deducted before any refund (if eligible) is disbursed.
