

Cochise College Nursing and Allied Health Program Immunization Requirements

Prior to the beginning of study and depending on the program, all students must provide proof of the following immunizations:

Immunization	Program of Study					Medical Assistant
	Nursing	Paramedicine	Respiratory Therapy	EMT	Nursing Assistant
Measles, Mumps, Rubella (MMR)	Y	Y	Y	N	N	N
Chickenpox (Varicella)	Y	Y	Y	N	N	N
Hepatitis B	Y	Y	Y	N	N	N
TDaP	Y	Y	Y	N	N	N
Flu Vaccine	Y	N	N	N	N	N
Tuberculosis (TB)	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y	Y

Measles, Mumps, Rubella (MMR)

Must have two (2) MMR immunizations – provide photocopy of documentation or Positive MMR titer – provide photocopy of laboratory test or
 Birth certificate or driver’s license verifying birth prior to 1957 – provide photocopy of birth certificate or driver’s license

Chickenpox (Varicella)

Must have two (2) Varicella immunizations –provide photocopy of documentation or
 Positive Varicella titer – provide photocopy of laboratory test

Hepatitis B

Must start the immunization prior to entering the nursing or paramedic program
 Documentation of these immunizations on the attached forms for Hepatitis B
 If records of immunization are not available, then the student may show immunity by having a Hepatitis B panel drawn.
 Results must show Hep B Ab+ and Hep B Ag Neg – provide photocopy of laboratory test

TDaP

Must have one immunization within last 10 years
 Provide photocopy of documentation

Flu Vaccine

When available, prior to start of clinical

Tuberculosis (TB)

Must have a tuberculin skin test not more than three (3) months prior to entering the program – provide photocopy of documentation
 If positive, must provide a current (not more than three (3) months prior to entering the program) chest x-ray report

Any student contracting Respiratory Infections, Tuberculosis, Rubella, Rubeola, Mumps, or Varicella during the course shall comply with the attendance policies of the course and shall not be allowed to participate in didactic, clinical, or vehicular activities until they provide written documentation from their physician that they are no longer contagious.