2.03 2019-2020 Student Tuition Schedule

Dr. Verlyn Fick, Executive Vice President/Provost and Dr. Wendy Davis, Vice President for Administration and Human Resources, provided a briefing to the Board highlighting the proposed tuition and fee schedule.

Administration’s tuition and fee schedule highlights include:
- In-state tuition increase of $3 per credit hour; $88 is below the Arizona average of $89 and is well below the national average of $120/$130. Assessment shows it is within the guidelines as relates to federal financial aid.
- Online in-state decrease of $5.00 per credit hour
- Online out-of-state increase of $10 per credit hour
- Housing room rate increase (ranging from $30-$53) to cover increases in utilities and maintenance
- Transcript 2nd day fee decrease of $25
- Additional Diplomas – new fee of $10

Dr. Fick presented a proposed new fee structure for Aviation:
- An increase of 30-40% in fees is needed to maintain the program
- Continue requiring fee payments up-front
- Separate out each section of the program in case a student needs to drop out and return later, they will not need to pay for the whole fee again.
- A fee for above and beyond hours of flight will now be charged
  - Setting max hours for course components; any hours beyond the set max hours, will require the student pay an hourly rate
Mr. Quinn led a brief discussion regarding what the college is using as a benchmark to measure the program’s new structure. Dr. Rottweiler noted that Dr. Fick and the aviation staff conducted comparisons, finding that Yavapai Community College has a flight program, but they do not conduct the air training; it is third party contracted. In addition, their in-state tuition rate, from two years ago, was $575 per credit. A comparison for the instrument training for all fees and tuition, Cochise College charges $16,364, and Yavapai’s fees are over $20K. The fee for commercial and multi-engine together, Cochise is around $40K and Yavapai is over $50K. Out of ten additional comparisons, there were four to five institutions within the same price range as Cochise College.

Dr. Rottweiler stated the proposed aviation fees would allow the college to cover the costs such as leasing a plane, maintenance, etc. for additional students enrolled. Currently the college has 60 applicants registered for the fall semester with 40 open slots.

Mr. Quinn commended Dr. Fick and the aviation staff for the work in preparing the new Aviation fee structure and comparison.

With the price increase in metal and materials to support the welding classes, the college proposed increased course fees ranging from $15 to $60.

Mrs. Strain moved, and Mr. Hudgins seconded a motion to approve the tuition schedule for FY2020 as presented. There was no further discussion by the Board. The Board unanimously approved with Board members, David DiPeso, Don Hudgins, Dennis Nelson, Tim Quinn and Jane Strain all voting aye. MOTION CARRIED.
